Could Not Agree.

Paris, Tex., Nov. 12.—The jury in the case of J. C. Whitley, charged with assault to murder by cutting a tailor named Gray of Honey Grove, retired to consider its verdict late yesterday afternoon and after consulting for some time returned to court and announced that an agreement could not be reached. As one of the jurors had received word of the serious illness of his baby a mistrial was ordered.

The Chrysanthemum Show.

Paris, Tex., Nov. 12.—The chrysanthemum show at Mayer's auditorium yesterday was a big success and the King's Daughters, under whose auspices the show was held, cleared over $40. The flowers exhibited were of a superior quality and the art exhibits attracted considerable attention. The musical entertainment last night was well attended.

Assault to Murder.

Paris, Tex., Nov. 12.—George C. Doroty was placed on trial before Judge McClellan in the district court on a charge of assault to murder by shooting into the yard of T. S. Hill and wounding his little daughter. The state closed its case about 2:30 p. m. and shortly after the jury retired to consider its verdict.

Grand Jury Bills.

Paris, Tex., Nov. 12.—The grand jury today returned thirty-one true bills, all misdemeanor cases, but as the parties are not yet arrested the names were withheld.

Appointed Road Overseers.

Paris, Tex., Nov. 12.—The commissioners' court has been in session all day, but did little except to appoint a number of road overseers for the coming year.

Marriage License.

Paris, Tex., Nov. 12.—The only marriage license granted to-day was to John Madison Porter and Miss Tessie Garrison.

Matters Local.

Paris, Tex., Nov. 12.—An effort is being made to get a pardon for George Funches, who was convicted of horse theft in Red River county.

Rev. Alexander of Memphis has been invited to visit Paris by the First Presbyterian church and it is possible that the church will call him to the pastorate.
